Registration: All contestants will need to provide a 6 quart (common size of slow cooker) for the entry. Must be made ahead of time and delivered under the tent by the Floral Hall by 1 PM on Sunday, August 2nd. BEANS MUST BE the main part of the entry. Any meat or vegetable additions cannot be larger than the beans themselves. Contestants can register to be in multiple contests, for example, Farm Bureau Beef Cookout Contest, People's Choice Contest and the Battle of Baked Beans Cookout Contest.

Please mail this form to: Clayton County Fair, PO Box 366 Garnavillo, IA 52049 before July 28th.

Judging: All judging will be blind. Crockpots will be numbered and voters will choose their favorite and place their vote into the corresponding numbered container. A 2oz cup and tasting spoon will be provided to the taste testers.

Rules: Contestants cannot sell samples to the public. Need to provide an ingredient list to coordinators. Contestants should clearly identify common allergens (nuts, dairy, gluten and shellfish) if present. Nothing larger than a bean can be included in the judging cup. All ingredients must be smaller in size and similar in size to the bean.
